Contenu

(i) What is an interesting question, (ii) Design an experiment to answer the question, (iii) Run the experiment, (iv) Analyse the results, (v) Write-up the results as a scientific paper.

Forme de l'évaluation

Continuous assesment graded.

Participation in discussing and running project will be evaluated, and the scientific paper will be graded. If a student fails, an oral exam (discussion of the topic of the project) will be given up to the fourth week of the next semester; the date will be discussed with the student.

Forme de l'enseignement

The projects will be run in groups. However, each student must write his or her own scientific paper. Note that running the experiment will require work outside of the official class hours.
