Contenu

This course aims to provide students with the fundamental elements and concepts necessary to analyze, discuss and evaluate the choice of policies and practices for managing human resources within an international business context.

Beyond organizational strategies and structures, the internationalization of companies is carried by people. In order to succeed within an international environment, multinational companies need thus to be able to effectively manage their people across different economic and cultural environments. The different session of this course will therefore address the context and the main challenges of human resources management in international firms.

Forme de l'évaluation

The evaluation form includes case studies, a group project and an individual assignment.

The distribution of points is as follows:

- Case studies: 20 points
- Individual work: 30 points
- Group Project (Presentation and Report): 50 points

In case of failure/insufficient grade, students have to take a two hour written exam accounting for 100% of the final grade either during the exam session at the end of the semester or during the retake session in September.

Documents or connected devices are not permitted during the exams. In case of violation of these rules, the students are in a situation of fraud and the unauthorized will be removed. The exam will be deemed as failed.

Documentation

Books and further literature will be given during the course and made available on Moodle.
